VERDICT

1 (In open court.)

2 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: All Rise.

3 THE COURT: Be seated. We have received a note from 4 the Jury that we've marked as Court Exhibit 16. It says, "We 5 have reached a verdict." It is signed by Juror No. 11, the 6 Foreperson.

7 Is there any reason from the parties why I should
8 not bring in the jury and receive the verdict?

9 MS. PARLOVECCHIO: No, your Honor.

10 MR. PURPURA: No, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Let me say a couple of things to the 12 gallery first before I bring in the jury. First of all, no
13 demonstrative reaction to the verdict, please, everyone
14 demonstrate proper decorum.

15 Second, those of you who chose to be in the
16 courtroom, at this point you're going to need to stay until I
17 discharge the jury. I don't want everyone running for the 18 exits as soon as I start reading the verdict. Make your 19 decision now, either you stay here or you can go to the 20 overflow courtroom and listen to it there.

21 Let's have the jury in, please.

22 (Jury enters the courtroom.)

23 THE COURT: Everyone be seated. Good morning,
24 ladies and gentlemen. We have your note saying that you have
25 reached a verdict.

VERDICT

1 Let me ask your Foreperson, Juror No. 11, is it
2 correct that you have reached a unanimous verdict on all
3 counts?

4 THE FOREPERSON: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Hand the verdict form to Ms. Clarke.
6 Give me a moment to inspect the verdict form.

7 All right, ladies and gentlemen, what I'm going to
8 do now is referred to as publishing the verdict, that simply 9 means I'm going to read it out loud. It's very important that
10 you listen carefully as I read it because either side has the 11 right to ask me to ask each one of you individually if what
12 I've read does in fact represent your true and accurate
13 verdict. So please attend while I read the verdict.

14 The verdict on Count One, engaging in a continuing
15 criminal enterprise, the Jury has checked guilty.

16 As to the Violations within that count, the Jury has 17 checked proven as to all Violations except Violation 18 and 18 24.

19 As to the questions following Count One, first, has
20 the Government proved beyond a reasonable doubt that at least
21 one Violation that you have determined to be proven involved
22 at least 150 kilograms of cocaine, the Jury has checked yes.

23 The second question, has the government proved
24 beyond a reasonable doubt that the Enterprise received
25 $10 million or more in gross receipts during at least one

VERDICT

11 reasonable doubt that one or more of the firearms at issue in
12 Count Nine was discharged, the Jury has checked yes.

13 Third, has the Government proved beyond a reasonable
14 doubt that one or more of the firearms at issue in Count Nine
15 was a machine gun, the Jury has checked yes.

16 As to Count Ten, conspiracy to launder narcotics
17 proceeds, the Jury has checked guilty.

18 The verdict form is signed by Juror No. 11.

19 Would either side like me to poll the Jury?

20 MR. PURPURA: Yes, please poll the jury.

21 THE COURT: Juror No. 1, is the verdict as I have
22 read it to you, does that represent your true and accurate
23 verdict?

24 JUROR NO. 1: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Juror No. 2?

22 THE COURT: Is there any reason why I should not
23 discharge the jury?

24 MR. PURPURA: No, your Honor.

25 MS. PARLOVECCHIO: No, your Honor.

VERDICT

1 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, I told
2 you when I gave you the instructions for this case that I had
3 no opinion on how you should decide this case, that remains
4 the case. I am not going to comment in any way on whether I
5 think your opinion was right or wrong in any way.

6 But what I do want to say to you and I have to
7 commend you for this, in my nearly 13 years as a trial judge I
8 have never seen a jury in a case this complicated pay the kind
9 of attention and focus on detail and go through the
10 deliberations the way you did. We're one of the few countries
11 in the world that trusts our citizens to make these important
12 kinds of decisions over other people's lives. You have
13 demonstrated why we do that and why we have confidence in it.

14 Not with regard to the decision you reached, but the 15 way you went about it, was really quite remarkable; and
16 frankly, made me very proud to be an American.

17 As for the alternates, I don't think your time here
18 was wasted. The level of tension when we don't have 19 alternates in a case like this, and the possibility of losing
20 a juror means the case have to start over, is really very
21 unpleasant. So having the security of having you here really
22 was a great benefit. I hope you found it interesting as well
23 to listen to the trial.

24 And I want to thank all of the Jury, the alternates
25 and the main Jury, for the excellent attention you paid

VERDICT

1 throughout this case. It was really just remarkable.

2 The only other thing I'll say to you is we're going
3 to continue to preserve your anonymity, the Court is not going
4 to let that information out. You can, if you want, my advice
5 to you is that you not. Once you open that door, it's very
6 difficult to close it, everyone is going to want to ask you
7 questions. But you have the perfect right to do as you want.
8 It's going to be your decision as to how you want to proceed
9 from this point forward. The information will not come from 10 the Court. I can assure you that it will not come from the 11 lawyers.

12 Thank you once again, we really appreciate it. You
13 are discharged.

14 (Jury exits the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: Everyone be seated. The order of 16 detention will continue. Let's pick a tentative sentencing
17 date for about 90 days out.

18 COURTROOM DEPUTY: June 25 at 10:00 a.m.

19 THE COURT: June 25 at 10:00 a.m. is an initial date
20 for sentencing. Anybody have a problem with that?

VERDICT

1 MR. PURPURA: No, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Anything else to cover?

3 MR. PURPURA: No, thank you.

4 MS. PARLOVECCHIO: No, thank you.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. All we are adjourned.

6 (Whereupon, the matter was concluded.)
